Fantastic afternoon x

Thankyou for such a lovely evening All the hard work showed You should all have been very proud of yourselves, WELL DONE !

What a night - So many people people being excellent

It was at times emotional, with pride being the greatest in what the performers did for themselves and each other. The audiences laughter and tears could be heard during the performances with such applause at the end of each. The direction and support from Caroline, Emma and Nick with the backstage staff in all areas (backstage, light, sound, changing rooms, front of house) played an important part without the pleasure of seeing the show, so a special thanks to them as well.

Ruby had a great time and is still singing along to Joseph and Children rule the world !!
