

Herts Inclusive Theatre
Summer workshops for children and young people

Butterfly World Workshops

Herts Inclusive Theatre are hosting two drama and performance workshops at Butterfly World.

Workshops open to 4 – 16 year olds of all abilities

What and When?

Wednesday 18th August – 10.30am – 12.30pm

'The Rubbish Insect Orchestra'

Come and discover how a ladybird plays the drums using cardboard tubes, or how a beetle makes maracas from plastic bottles. Make instruments using recycled materials, become an insect and make an orchestra. The session will end with a short performance to family.

Wednesday 25th August – 10.30am – 12.30pm

'Become a Butterfly'

Come and decorate your own butterfly mask, then learn how to perform whilst wearing it. Become a caterpillar, a cocoon and eventually a butterfly. The session will end with a short performance to family.

Where?

Butterfly World, Miriam Lane, off Noke Lane, Chiswell Green, Herts, AL2 3NY

(Free Admission to butterfly world for all participants and accompanying adults go half price!)

How much?

£8 per session (£12 for both)

How to book?

Contact Herts Inclusive Theatre on -

Mobile: 07983 376734

Answerphone: 01923 499310

E-mail: hertsinclusivetheatre@live.co.uk

Butterfly World, near St Albans, is currently in Phase II of its development as the biggest butterfly experience in the world. It will be completed in the autumn 2011, a massive biome filled with 10,000 tropical butterflies. To visit and to find out more information: www.butterflyworldproject.com or call 01727 869203 .

Herts Inclusive Theatre is a registered Charity no. 1136031

